January 8, 1962

PARTICIPANTS:

STATE - Mr. Sterling J. Cottrell, Coordinator
 Mr. Robert A. Hurwitch, Deputy Coordinator

DEFENSE - Mr. Adam Yarmolinsky
JUSTICE - Mr. Joe Dolan
WHITE HOUSE - Mr. McGeorge Bundy
HEALTH, ED., & WELFARE - Mr. Robert A. Kevan
CIA - Mr. Richard Helms
USIA - Mr. Hewson A. Ryan

SUBJECT: General Organization

1. The Coordinator outlined his interpretation of the NSAM (No. 213) establishing the Interdepartmental Coordinating Committee, and explained how he believed the work of the Committee should be accomplished. All members expressed agreement.

ACTION: None

2. The Coordinator noted that State and CIA had already provided him with lists of Cuban problems which need solution on an inter-agency basis. He requested that all other agencies present provide him with such a list, in order of priority. The Coordinator will then prepare a master list and start work on the problems.

ACTION: Defense, USIA, HEW, Justice

3. The Coordinator requested that each agency present supply him with the name of one officer who would be responsive to call from the Coordinator on operational problems.

ACTION: State, Defense, USIA, HEW, Justice
